PRESIDENT OF UNITED STATES WILL PASS THROUGH DAYTONA

PLANS OF WILLIAM H. TAFT WILL BRING HIM HERE SOON

SPECIAL TRAIN CARRYING BIGGEST MAN IN NATION TO KEY WEST TO GO THROUGH THE CITY JANUARY 21.

If plans now being made and practically completed are carried out President William H. Taft will be in Daytona the afternoon of Sunday, January 21.

The present plans call for the nation's executive to pass through the city on a special train without a stop here, but it may be arranged that he will make a stop at least a short time in the prettiest winter resort in the world and every effort will be made to induce President Taft to make a stop in Daytona.

In passing through Daytona President Taft will be on his way to Key West to attend the celebration of the opening of the Florida East Coast railroad to the Island City. The present plans call for him to arrive in Jacksonville at noon Saturday, January 20, and remain in the metropolis of the state until noon the next day, when he will board his special train for the ride to Key West.

The special train bearing the president of the United States will follow closely behind the Overseas Limited on the East Coast road, the train acting as a sort of pilot train for the distinguished visitor. The train is expected to run straight from Jacksonville to Key West with as few stops as possible.

The visit of President Taft will make the third time a president of the United States has visited the East Coast country while holding the reins of office. President Grover Cleveland and President Theodore Roosevelt each paid a visit to Jacksonville while serving as executive of the nation.

If the special train bearing the president of the United States leaves Jacksonville at noon it should arrive in Daytona in the late afternoon, and will probably be greeted by a large crowd when it reaches the city.

It is said invitations have also been extended to members of the president's cabinet and all members of the United States senate to attend the celebration marking the completion of the Florida East Coast railroad to Key West, and some of these prominent officials will probably accompany the president on the trip.

MONEY TRUST THE LARGEST IN COUNTRY

CHARGE MADE BY BRANDIES BEFORE SENATE COMMITTEE

BAY STATE ATTORNEY SPEAKS IN FAVOR OF LAFOLLETTE BILL, DESIGNATED TO CURB GROWTH OF TRUSTS.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14—Making the direct charge that the methods of the gigantic monopolies are causing a spread of a dangerous unrest over the country, Attorney Louis Brandies today appeared before the senate committee on interstate commerce, speaking in favor of the LaFollette bill, designated to curb the growth of trusts.

The most menacing trust, said Mr. Brandies, is the Wall street money trust, which is tightening up on all business in America. The speaker charged that conditions in trust-owned mills and factories are not nearly so good as in independent plants, and said that with the LaFollette bill in force it would be impossible to form any more trusts.

Mr. Brandies declared that since the steel trust gained control of the rail making business railroad wrecks have increased alarmingly, due to defective rails.

ANTI-TRUST LAW FULLY SUSTAINED

DECLARES ATTORNEY GENERAL IN HIS REPORT MADE TODAY

OFFICIAL SETS HIS STAMP OF APPROVAL ON THE REORGANIZATION PLAN OF THE TOBACCO TRUST.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14—That the decision of the United States supreme court in the Standard Oil and tobacco trust cases, "have fully demonstrated the effectiveness of the Sherman anti-trust law to accomplish the purposes for which it was enacted," is the opinion expressed by Attorney General Wickersham in his annual report which was made public today.

"The court in these decisions," says the report, "rejected a literal interpretation of the act which would have brought within its condemnation every agreement, which, in any respect whatever, restrained competition; and holding that a reasonable construction must be given to its language, recited that not every incidental or immaterial restraint of competition was a restraint of trade within its meaning, but that a contract combination or conspiracy, in order to fall within the law, must impose a direct and undue restraint upon commerce between the states or with foreign countries."

The attorney general reviews the history of these two cases at length, and states that in the tobacco case the supreme court was confronted by a far more intricate problem than in the Standard Oil case. He sets his stamp of approval on the reorganization plan of the tobacco trust, which was recently affirmed by the circuit court. In this connection he says: "In my opinion the plan which has been approved by the circuit court will accomplish the objects of the law, and the various injunctive provisions embodied in the decree of the circuit court will effectively operate to prevent a recurrence in the future of those agreements and conditions, which in the past have been found to be essential to the creation and maintenance of monopolistic conditions."

KELLEY GONE ON STEAMER FROM TAMPA

BOUND FOR SOUTH AMERICA ACCORDING TO LATE REPORTS

GUARD SAID TO HAVE TAKEN PASSAGE FOR GALVESTON AND OFFICERS ARE WATCHING FOR HIM THERE.

Latest developments in the search for J. M. Kelley, the life convict who recently escaped from the camp on the Daytona-DeLand road, indicate the life has made good his escape and is now bound for South America, while the guard, Smith, will probably be placed under arrest in Texas soon.

After Kelley escaped from the camp between Daytona and DeLand it was discovered the guard had either aided the convict in making the escape and gone with him, or been compelled by the life to surrender the gun he carried and the clothes he wore, detectives of the Atlantic Coast Line railroad, who were instrumental in convicting Kelley and having him sentenced to the camps for life, have prosecuted a relentless search to get some trace of the missing prisoner.

It is now believed Kelley and Smith left the camp together and that the guard aided the prisoner in making the escape. In taking up the trail the railroad detectives followed the two men to the west and south. The fugitives succeeded in keeping well under cover and were said to have reached Tampa without their identity being discovered.

They were followed into the city of Tampa by the railroad officers, according to reports, the detectives reaching that city just 24 hours after the convict and the missing guard. During that 24 hours, however, Kelley and Smith had been busy and had mapped out further plans for the escape. Believing it unwise to travel further together the two men decided to separate at Tampa, taking different routes toward South America, where it is believed the plans called for the two men to meet again.

According to the reports received in this city Kelley took passage direct to South America, or caught a boat for New Orleans or Havana to change to a southbound steamer, while Smith is alleged to have taken passage from Tampa for Galveston, Texas, from which city it is supposed he planned to continue his way toward South America.

If this is the plan followed out by the two men it is probable Kelley made good his escape, while the authorities in Galveston will likely pick up the guard when the Tampa steamer docks in that city. In case Smith is apprehended in Galveston and brought back to this state he will probably receive a heavy sentence, providing it can be proved he actually aided the convict in making his escape.

SEABREEZE, Dec. 13—The Mothers' School Improvement association effected a temporary organization at the called meeting held at the school building Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 by electing the following officers: President, Mrs. J. A. Coburn; vice president, Mrs. Green; secretary, Mrs. R. C. Waterson; treasurer, Mrs. C. L. Horn. Seabreeze and Daytona Beach were divided into districts and committees were appointed to invite the mothers, and school patrons generally to meet at the school building Friday afternoon at 3:15 to discuss plans for work.

Mrs. Hesser is visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. Ward McLanahan and family at Martinsburg, W. Va., but expects to spend part of the winter in Seabreeze.

Mr. and Mrs. McLanahan are rejoicing over the arrival of a new boy baby in the family. The young heir arrived December 1—in good time to get his name on the Christmas list.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Gamble will arrive this week from Cairns, Mich., to spend the season as usual in their home on the Halifax. Miss Margaret Gamble, who is attending school in Springfield, Mass., will spend the holidays with her parents.

Rev. Dr. R. A. Carmine, dis-was greeted by a large audience at the First M. E. church, Wednesday night, considering the inclement state of the weather, and the crowd was well repaid for the effort by Dr. Carmine's lecture, "Afoot and Alone in Ireland." Dr. Carmine dis-claims any intentional wit in the lecture but it abounds in witty points and incidents natural to such a journey. The lecture was given by Dr. Carmine Tuesday night at the M. E. church, Daytona Beach, to a good audience at that place.
